NEW MASONIC TEMPLE, HONOLULU, H. I.

THE NEW TEMPLE

THE CORNER-STONE IS LAID WITH MASONIC HONORS.

Eloquent Oration By Hon. Paul Neumann—Full Account of the Impressive Ceremony.

Tuesday afternoon the cornerstone of the new Masonic Temple, on the corner of Alakea and Hotel streets, was laid with appropriate ceremonies by Hawaiian Lodge, No. 21, F. & A. M., for which lodge the new temple is being erected.

Everything passed off pleasantly and the impressive Masonic ceremony was witnessed by a vast concourse of people. During the morning a number of carpenters were engaged erecting a platform for the invited guests. The platform was a covered one and seats were provided for 300 people, with a special row of chairs for the Royal party.

About 2:30 o'clock the procession started from the building at the corner of Fort and Queen streets, at present occupied by Hawaiian Lodge, and marched up Fort street to King, along King to Alakea and up Alakea to the scene of the ceremony, proceeding in the following order:

When the procession reached the new building, thanks to Mr. E.
B. Thomas, the contractor of the edifice, everything was in readiness for the ceremony of laying the corner-stone.

During the ceremony, odes were sung by the choir of St. Andrew's Cathedral, Mr. Wray Taylor accompanying on the organ. The instrumental music was furnished by the Hawaiian Band under the direction of Professor H. Berger.

The Ceremony.

After a prayer by Grand Chaplain P. M. Rev. Alex. Mackintosh, an ode was sung by the choir, when the ceremony of laying the corner-stone was begun by W. M.
Andrew Brown, on behalf of Hawaiian Lodge No. 21, F. and A. M., who invited Grand Master P. M.
W. F. Allen to commence the ceremonies. The Grand Master responded as follows:

YOUR MAJESTY, LADIES AND GEN-TLEMEN AND BROTHER MASONS:

We are gathered here to-day by invitation of the Grand Lodge of California, F. & A. M., under authority given me as follows: "You will con-vocate the Grand Lodge of California, F. & A. M., at Honolulu, H. I., on the 27th day of December, 1892, for the purpose of laying the corner-stone of the new Masonic Temple at that place, performing said ceremony in my place and stead, accepting this as my authority and deputation from me, C. R. Gretman, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of California;" to witness and assist in the ceremony of laying the corner-stone of this building, which, when complete, will be the Hawaiian Masonic Temple.

Hawaiian Lodge No. 21, F. and A.
M., was chartered by the Grand Lodge of California on the 5th day of May, 1892 (our sister Lodge the Progress is some years older), and the charter members were: Lemuel Lyon, Chas.
W. Vincent, Wm. Wond, Frederick M. Thompson, Andrew C. Mott, John Maek, David P. Penhallow, Jas. G.
Searns, Alexander J. Cartwright, Joseph Irwin, F. M. Stokes.

From that time our Lodge has prospered, and to-day we have one hundred and twenty-seven members, and are able to erect this Temple.

Masonry has always held a high position in Honolulu; sovereigns, governors, judges, clergymen and those most respected in our community have and do belong to the order.

I do not say that all good citizens are Masons, but I do say that all good Masons are good citizens.

Brother Masons, now that we shall become more prominent, let me ask you to unite with our neighbors the Young Men's Christian Association and the Honolulu Library and Reading Room Association, in doing all we can by our good example, to promote good morals, and good citizenship in this our home city.

After the Band played a selection Grand Secretary P. M. John Phillips read the contents of the box which was afterwards deposited in the cavity of the lower stone. The box was made of sheet copper and was 14 1/2 inches long, by 9 inches wide by 7 inches high.
The following is the official list of the contents:

THE LEGISLATURE

One Hundred and Fifty-Sixth Day.

TUESDAY, DEC. 27.

The House met at 9 A. M. Roll call, twenty-six members present. Quorum at 9:08 A. M. The minutes were read and approved.

PETITIONS.

Rep. Nawahi presented a petition from South Hilo praying that a new Constitution be drawn up.

The Clerk read a petition from M.
Rose, of Kaneohe, praying that investigation be made of certain Crown Land leases which Hon. J. E. Bush refused to take any action in the matter. Referred to Hon. J. E. Bush.

STANDING COMMITTEES.

Noble Williams reported several bills printed.

RESOLUTIONS.

Rep. Edmonds presented a resolution praying that the Chairman of the Judiciary Committee be requested to return Bill 91 on Waialua Water Works, and that it be made the Order of the Day for Thursday, December 29th.

Rep. Smith, Chairman of the Judiciary Committee, replied that he had not seen the bill, but the committee would soon report.

Rep. Edmonds then withdrew his resolution.

The House proceeded at 9:25 A. M. to the

ORDER OF THE DAY.

Unfinished business: Second reading of Bill 139, Election Law.

Section 4 was read.

The section was stricken out.

Section 5 provides for specimen ballots of red and green.

Rep. Kamaoia moved that specimen ballots be the same as ballots for Representatives and Nobles.

Section 5 passed as amended.

Section 6 was read. It amends Section 75 as follows: "In cases where general and special elections are held at the same time and are incorporated upon the same ballot, if the provisions of sub-section 1 be violated in one or more of the several elections thus held upon one ballot; the whole ballot shall not be considered as invalid, but only the election or elections or general in which such violation occurs."

The motion to strike out the section was lost and it passed as in the bill.

Rep. Nawahi opposed perpetual tinkering with the Election law.

After considerable debate Section 7 passed as in the bill.

The Title and Enacting clause passed and Thursday was set for the third reading.

Consideration of the Constitutional Convention bill in Committee of the Whole, Rep. Kanihi in the chair.

The majority and majority reports of the committee were read. The former opposed the bill and the latter favored it.

Rep. Kamaoia was in favor of the bill. He moved it be considered section by section.

Noble Kauhane did not favor a constitutional convention. Those who wished to have a new constitution could go before the country on that special issue at the next election. The Constitution had been accepted by Sovereign and people, and the people had a great deal more to say about the government than they ever had under the old constitution. It did not satisfy everybody of course. The great expense of a constitutional convention was a further reason for not bringing the matter up now. He therefore moved that when the committee rise it recommend referring the bill to the Legislature of 1894.

Rep. Nawahi favored the bill. It was not intended to bring trouble upon the country, but simply to secure a Constitution which would be satisfactory to the people. The present Constitution gave the people too much power. Some of it should be given to the sovereign. It was true that the people had accepted the Constitution, but it was unwillingly. It had been forced upon the King with threats of violence, and had shortened his days.
It was providential that so many of those who had been engaged in this had died or been compelled to leave the country. He called on the Cabinet to assist in passing this bill. If they did so, he should support them; if not, he might be compelled to vote against them. He had no personal grudge against any of them.

Rep. Bipkane said this was the bill which he had been waiting for. It was his favorite mistress. In 1887 he was one of the few natives who went to Waterhouse's store and got a gun,
